

1 DELEGATE MUDD: Our Committee considered the 2 use of this word "resident," and also "domicile" and 3 "citizen," and we adopted the word "resident" as being 4 the most descriptive of what we intended.

5 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Chabot.

6 DELEGATE CHABOT: But then this may be something 7 that is different from a resident for purposes of the 8 legislative article, suffrage and elections? I still don't 9 understand. Am I to use the same concept?

10 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Chabot, may the Chair
11 point out in the suffrage and elections article there is 12 provision that the legislature may define residents for 13 the purposes of that article?

14 DELEGATE CHABOT: Yes, I recognize that, and 15 I was wondering whether that was intended to be, whether 16 the intent of the committee was to import whatever that 17 definition may be into this article, or in effect permit
18 a different definition of the same word in this article?

19 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Mudd, do you understand
20 the question?

21 DELEGATE MUDD: I think I understand the
